Herrmaen's Theatre opened for the season yesterday with an entertainment given by little Mrs. Tom Thumb and her midgets. The principal feature of the programme was a mustcal comedy called "The Countess," in which Mrs. Tom Thumb and the Count and Baron Magri appeared. The performance was certa-nly an unusual one for Broadway.

any support whatever. The illusion was

Mme. Zaida and Miss Adele Purvis Onri were other attractions.

NOTES FROM LABOR'S FIELD.

A dozen "rank outsiders" occupied seats in the press-box at the Coney Island A. C. last night, for which they had no coupons. Teddy Foley put them there, they said, and even Judge Newton himself was unable to have them leave. Foley's tactics will hurt the club, even though he makes himself a "good fellow" with a lot of dubious sports.

Brooklyn and New York were both the closingweek of the season, and it is likely the clubs will finish in the order of this record:
